ACADEMY OF YOUNG DIPLOMATS | XIII EDITION

II EXTERNAL SESSION | 13 – 15 JANUARY 2017

Conference title: The EU Migration & Refugee Crisis – perspectives from Visegrad & Germany

Conference organized in cooperation with the Konrad Adenauer Foundation, the Jagiellonian University & the Bosch Foundation

Panel discussions:

- Managing the EU migration and refugee crisis: lessons learned & challenges ahead
- Perceptions of immigration in V4 & Germany: is solidarity among states and people possible inside the EU?
- Refugees, islamophobia and the raise of far-right parties in Europe – why should we be worried?

Questions discussed during the external session in Kraków:

- What is the nature, and what are the sources, of the EU crisis concerning migration?
- What should be the legal, policy and operational responses to the European migration crisis by the EU & member states?
- What is, and what should be, the role of neighboring and transit states in controlling migration towards the EU? What constitutes the basis of the EU-Turkish deal and is it sustainable?
- What is the past experience with dealing with immigrants in Visegrad countries and Germany? What lessons were learned?
- What is the nature of the different perceptions of the migration crisis between Visegrad countries & Germany? Are these changing with time? In what way?
- How has islamophobia developed in Europe and how grounded are European societies' fears of Islam?
- Is the exposure to refugees strengthening the far-right populist parties in Europe?

Please note that the program might be slightly changed.
