

Perspectives from Visegrad & Germany

14 January 2017
Auditorium Maximum, UJ
Krupnicza 33, Cracow

10:00 - 10:30 | Official Opening

Dr. Katarzyna Pisarska, Director, European Academy of Diplomacy

Dr. Dariusz Niedźwiecki, Director, Institute of European Studies, Jagiellonian University

Mr. Michael Quaas, Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Germany

10:30 - 12:00 | Managing the EU migration and refugee crisis: lessons learned & challenges ahead

Dr. Marta Pachocka, Coordinator, EUMIGRO Project, Warsaw School of Economics

Dr. Christos Iliadis, Political scientist, Symbiosis Civic School of Political Studies, Greece

Dr. Katarzyna Pisarska, Director, European Academy of Diplomacy

Moderator: Ms Joanna Jasinska, Head of the Visegrad School of Political Studies,
European Academy of Diplomacy

COFFEE BREAK

12:15 - 13:45 | Perceptions of immigration in V4 & Germany: is solidarity among states and people possible inside the EU?

Mr. Tomáš Jungwirth, Consortium of Migrants' Assisting Organizations in Czech Republic, VSPS Migration Program participant

Dr. Grzegorz Pożarlik, Institute of European Studies, Jagiellonian University

Mr. Michael Quaas, Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Germany

Moderator: Mr. László Szerencsés, Johanniter Organization, Hungary, VSPS Migration Program participant

LUNCH

15:15 - 16:45 | Refugees, islamophobia and the rise of far-right parties in Europe – why should we be worried?

Dr. Ahmed Driss, Director, Tunisian School of Politics

Dr. Patrycja Sasnal, Head of the Middle East and North Africa Project, Polish Institute of International Affairs

Ms. Justyna Segeš – Frelak, Head of Migration and Development Policy Programme, Institute of Public Affairs

Moderator: Ms. Katarzyna Waksmundzka, Deputy Director, European Academy of Diplomacy